Course Content and Strategies

The course focuses on fluency and methodology and their practical application to the classroom.

Participants will be encouraged to share their own ideas and experience in a friendly, supportive atmosphere and develop networks with participants from other countries. There will be opportunities throughout the course to exploit the UK context by collecting relevant authentic materials, making contact with native speakers and taking part in the school's social and cultural programme, and outings.

This course has a maximum class size 12. Trainers seek to give their colleagues greater personal fluency, more confidence in the classroom and insights into current language teaching methodology and techniques to improve teaching skills.

ELC Brighton classes in English as a Foreign Language include students studying with us for both short and long stays. Participants may observe our experienced, qualified EFL teachers in action.
