Our Trainers have taught teachers from all over the world and we take great pride in providing quality service and personal attention to each of our clients. In addition to sharing the experience of our trainers, participants also have the opportunity to share ideas and activities with teachers from other countries and education systems.

Our CLIL courses aim to provide participants with an understanding of how to combine language and subject teaching within a workable lesson framework and also to explore ways for enhancing learning materials used by the participants in the classroom. It is the aim of Cork English College that those teachers who attend the course return to their schools with increased confidence in their ability to use English in their lessons and a better understanding of the principles behind CLIL.

The course comprises 25 hours of input per week and sessions focus on

- the basic methodology of EFL teaching
- successfully combining language and subject teaching
- adapting and exploiting materials in the CLIL classroom
- practical ideas and activities for the classroom
- new developments in language teaching – using technology
- testing and assessing in CLIL

By the end of the course, participants will have an increased knowledge of EFL methodology and a framework for planning a CLIL lesson.

Cork English College

Cork English College is a centre of excellence for English language teaching. We are committed to providing the highest quality teaching available, while still retaining an elusive and unique quality – the personal touch.

We can do that because we're a family business, established 35 years ago, and we're still jointly run by our founder Valery Cullen and her son Marc. Over 20,000 students have passed in the College since we first opened our doors.

We can assure you that you will receive the service that you expect from one of the most established schools in Ireland. Our extensive experience in the area of T.E.F.L allows us to offer you a wide range of courses, all of which have been designed to perfection.

We are also a member of Quality English and indeed we were the first college in Ireland to be given this accolade, proof that our unique blend of high quality teaching in a friendly environment really works. When you put yourself in our hands, we take that responsibility very seriously. As well as providing you with all the expert tuition you need, we also take care of everything – from picking you up at the airport to arranging accommodation and activities. Why? Because we want to make sure that you enjoy your stay in Ireland to the full!

Cork English College is an authorised IELTS and University of Cambridge ESOL Examination Testing Centre. CEC is also an official TOEIC Testing Centre and an approved BULATS agent.

Cork City

CORK ENGLISH COLLEGE is located in the centre of Cork City, on the banks of the River Lee in South-West Ireland. Cork City is a university city with many 3rd level universities located here. It is built on two islands and the river Lee flows like a lifeline through the city with beautiful bridges interweaving and connecting the islands.

Cork International Airport is approximately 4km from the city centre and provides access to a host of international destinations.

The city itself has a rich heritage with many museums, art galleries and theatres intermingling with all the amenities of a modern city. With a relatively small population of approximately 150,000 in Cork and its suburbs provide all the conveniences of the city in a safe and friendly environment where students can learn and interact with the local population.
