Our school also organises activities for free during the week in the afternoons. Students need to sign up at the office on Monday for all the activities they wish to attend.

Galway City also has several cultural events that we recommend students check out before coming in order to plan their afternoon activities.

Some of the events happening in July and August are:

- GIAF 20202 - Galway International Arts Festival 2020
- Galway 2020 European Capital of Culture
- Trad on the prom
- Galway Pride Festival

COURSE CONDITIONS

- 1.1 lesson = 45 minutes.
2. Self-catering accommodation for 2020 is subject to limited availability and is provided on a first-come, first-served basis.
3. When booking a host family students will receive breakfast and dinner during the week. At the weekend they will receive breakfast, a packed lunch and dinner.
4. Students that book the morning programme have the option to add 10 extra lessons per week (focusing on conversation skills) in the afternoon for an additional fee. The lessons are scheduled for three afternoons per week from 13.30 to 16.15.
5. The General Conditions of our school are available upon request in electronic or printed format.
6. Activities held outside of the school are subject to availability from third-party providers and, although every effort is made by the school for provision of services for our students, availability cannot be guaranteed.
