Course Content

Course participants work on improving all four English skills within a commercial law context, in addition to learning specific legal terminology and how to use it appropriately. Integrated into the course is preparation for TOLES – Test of Legal English Skills. This exam is internationally recognised, and is a step towards reaching the standard of legal English required by employers such as international commercial law firms, in-house legal teams in private companies and top-class translators. In addition, participants are expected to improve their core study skills through up to 2 hours of focused self-study each evening set by their tutors to meet their needs.

The course includes a visit to the Royal Courts of Justice, London. The main focus of the course is on commercial law, with particular emphasis on company law and contracts.
