Torquay's most famous resident, Agatha Christie, used Torquay and the surrounding area for the setting of many of her novels.

Get to know her hometown and experience for yourself some of the evocative places that appear in her work. Gain a deeper understanding of the texts and feel that you have come close to the inspiration of one of the world's best-selling authors.

To make the most of this course, we recommend reading, in your own language or in English, the following novels:

And Then There Were None, The ABC of Murders, The Man in the Brown Suit
